

Gibson Assumes Management Of First Security's Main Office

Max C. Elliott, vice president and manager of the Provo Main office of First Security Bank of Utah since 1967, has turned over active management of the bank to Bill M. Gibson.

Both officials will continue to serve as vice presidents of the bank, but Gibson will assume the additional title of manager.

A 37-year veteran of First Security, Elliott has served as assistant manager of the Ogden Timeway department and as auditing and credit examiner for First Security Corporation. Since 1953 he has worked in the Provo Main office as manager of the Timeway loan department, assistant manager and, most recently, as manager. He was elected assistant vice president in 1956 and vice president in 1963.

He attended Brigham Young University and Colorado College and took correspondence courses through Ohio State University. In addition, he graduated from Pacific Coast Banking School in 1961.

Throughout his career, he has been extremely active in civic and community affairs. Naming only a few, he served as president of the Provo Chamber of Commerce, Utah County United Way, and Utah Valley Industrial Development Association, chairman of the Provo City Planning Commission, Central Utah County Cancer Society, and Comprehensive Health Council Mountainland Association of Governments (for Summit, Wasatch and Utah counties); director of the Riverside Country Club; and vice president of the Kiwanis Club. In addition, he was named Outstanding Businessman of the Year in 1969 by the BYU College of Business and received the Golden Deeds Award for Utah Valley from the Exchange Club.

Max Elliott

Bill Gibson

A graduate of Dixie Junior College and Pacific Coast Banking School, Gibson joined the Tooele office in 1960. In 1963 he was named assistant manager of the Provo Timeway loan department. Prior to his most recent appointment, he had been serving as vice president and manager of the Vernal office.

Gibson has also been very active in civic and community endeavors. During the 16 years he lived in Vernal, he held various positions, including president, Vernal Area Chamber of Commerce and Rotary Club; chairman, Utah Board of Water Resources; and director, Uintah Basin Energy Council. He was recently appointed a member of the Provo Rotary Club.

DR. ROBERT SPILMAN
CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD
SASSETT INDUSTRIES

OFFICIAL PARTICIPATING STORE

DOORCRASHER
BRASS

day and Saturday.